

MyLuxair and loyalty program data processing
Purposes	Legal Basis	Categories of data
Creation and management of your MyLuxair account Account creation and management; booking tracking; pre-filling of booking forms	Performance of a contract or precontractual measures	Identification data: Title, full names, date of birth, nationality, customer number, MyLuxair ID, loyalty number, Miles & More status Contact data: private/professional postal and email addresses, phone/mobile numbers Travel documents: document type, number, country of issue, expiration date Customer preference data: language, consent for newsletters Data related to customer interactions: emails, letters, calls Transactional data: purchase/booking history, gift vouchers
Social login [1] Facilitating login to your account via external providers, such as certain social network)	Consent	Authentication data: external provider identifier, name, email address as shared by the provider Identification: customer number, MyLuxair
Participation to High Five Management of participation in Luxair's High Five loyalty initiative	Performance of a contract or precontractual measures	Transactional data: purchase/booking history, gift vouchers
[1] It is made available to MyLuxair users and to visitors wishing to register the possibility to use a third-party sign-in option. By using this functionality, the user shall acknowledge that he/she is leaving the Luxair website to land on the pages managed by the used third-party. By doing so, the user is subject exclusively to the conditions and privacy policy of the provider. When using this functionality, MyLuxair will receive from the third-party sign-in provider email address and name.		